IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO PREPARE AN EXPENSE REPORT

http://policies.rutgers.edu/sites/policies/files/40.4.1%20-%20current.pdf
Regardless of funding source, only reasonable, appropriate and necessary travel and business expenses are reimbursable.

RAN

Reasonable – means that cost of the goods or services are not excessive.

Appropriate – means that the expenditure is consistent with objectives of the program, project or task. Appropriate also means that the expenditure is allowable under the terms and conditions of the underlying funding source and/or policies established by the University. Please note that these Univ policies also include the details included in the letters from the auditing dept.

Necessary means that the expenditure is required to achieve the expected goals or outcomes of the program, project, or task.
EXPENSE REPORT EXPLANATION AND JUSTIFICATION:

- Must be a business reason
- Must be fully descriptive and transparent
- Must explain how the expenditure(s) relate to the achievement of the program objectives and outcomes
- At times it is necessary to “Justify” individual expenses
- Late Expense Reports (greater than 60 days from date of travel return) must include a detailed justification for lateness and authorized signature (Dept office requires 7 business days for review and release)

Sample Business justifications:
- NO - Collaboration @ University of XXXXX
- YES - Collaboration @ University of XXXXX with Dr. John Smith on [description of research work] on July 25, 2017

- NO - Conference travel to NIPS
- YES - Conference travel to NIPS held in Ontario Canada, August 5-9, 2017. NIPS helps to foster the exchange of research on neural information processing systems in their biological, technological, mathematical, and theoretical aspects. This is the work directly related to the project research on this NSF grant. OR presented paper.

NOTE: conference agendas MUST be included with all reimbursement requests.
GENERAL INFORMATION

• All foreign travel must be in compliance with the Fly America Act. See Business Office website for further detail.

• Itemized meal receipts are required for all meals.

• Travelers must attach original receipts for ALL travel-related expense in excess of $50. All meal expenses require an original receipt regardless of the amount. Our travel policy defines a receipt as an original document itemizing the good(s) or service(s) purchased. A receipt must provide
  • A named payee and
  • Date that confirms payment has been made for a stated purchase.

• Receipts must show the form of payment if they don’t attach a copy of the credit card statement. If you paid cash write that on the receipt. Don’t write over any part of the transaction.

• Consolidate your receipts for each expense (i.e. hotel bill, cc charge) into one file to be uploaded.

• Proof of payment must accompany a lost receipt form.

• Lost Receipt forms must be approved before they are uploaded.

• Conference agendas MUST be included with all reimbursement requests.

• For Invited Talks, the invitation letter must be included with the expense report.
• Project charging information from the business office is needed in order to complete the process:
  • Expenditure Organization: XXXXXXXXXXX
  • Project: XXXXX
  • Project Transaction Location: 2110
  • Business Line: XXXX

• Each expense should have its own entry – i.e. do not combine multiple days’ taxi receipts together.

• If two projects are sharing the expense: You enter the expense twice and upload the receipt twice.

• Foreign Receipts must be translated.

• Per Diem Rates can be found here http://procurementservices.rutgers.edu/travel/reporting-travel-expenses

MISCELLANEOUS INFO:

- Reconciling Cash (Travel) Advances: create an expense report and put the cash advance number in the purpose field.

Expense Reports are subject to disclosure under the Open Public Records Act. They are also subject to examination by various state and federal authorities.

Many Expense Reports are sent to the RU Auditing Dept. for review. If any issue is found during this review an email is sent to the traveler that highlights the situation. And it is at this point that this requirement must be applied to all future Expense reports.
