

Abstract

A conjecture of Gyárfas and Lehel asks if the sequence of trees T_1, T_2, \dots, T_n , where T_i is a tree on i vertices, can be packed into K_n . We show that if each T_i is restricted to a star or a path, then the sequence can be packed. We also give an explicit construction for a restricted case when the paths and stars alternate.